7/20/81 MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

Special Delivery Jones W. Baron Scicluna (By pin, after a punishing Head-Butt.)

Johnny Rodz W. Terry Gunn (By pin, after a Flying Leg Drop, followed then by a Flying Elbow Drop.)

The Magnificent Muraco W. Pedro Morales -C.O.R. (Morales and Muraco fought outside of the ring, and Morales Threw Muraco back into the ring, just in time. Morales then was counted out, outside of the ring. Both Morales and Muraco fought like wildcats, during this torrid encounter.)

Sgt. Slaughter W. Dom DeNucci (By pin, with a One Leg/One Half Jack-Knife, after an elbow smash to the head, with a loaded elbow pad.)

Pat Patterson W. King Kong Mosca -DQ. (Mosca was disqualified, for striking the referee, knocking him down to the mat. The referee then called for the bell, to signal the disqualification. Mosca then went totally wild, and continued to strike Patterson, as well as the referee, a number of times.)

Andre The Giant DREW-D.DQ. Killer Khan (During this brutal match, Khan used his Judo/Karate Jabs and Chops, to down Andre. Khan did a pretty good job and used his deadly moves, to a great extent, throughout this wild melee. At times, Andre looked lifeless on the mat, while Khan was giving him a good going over. Andre's forehead was cut bloody, thanks to Khan and his wild maniacal Karate/ Judo Jabs and chops. Andre really looked like a beaten man, on his way to eventually being pinned, which never occurred. Andre then recovered and gave Khan, what for. He choked Khan, to a helpless state. Andre went completely wild, and would not stop choking Khan. The referee tried to stop Andre, but was struck by The Giant, sending him to the mat. The referee then signaled for the bell, to call a disqualification for Andre. In the end, this match was ruled a draw-double disqualification; probably due to Khan's constant use of Karate, on a lifeless Andre, earlier in the match. Between Khan's use of Karate, and Andre's Choke Hold, and striking the referee; the official made his decision based on the actions, of both parties. Tony Garea, Rick Martel, and Curt Hennig, entered the ring, and tried to stop Andre, from choking Khan. Andre just tossed those three mat stars, aside, several times. Andre really wanted to hurt Khan, bad. Garea, Martel, and Hennig, could not stop the crazed and bloody Andre. Pat Patterson and Bob Backlund then entered the ring, to try and stop, Andre's onslaught on Khan. Andre finally came to his senses, and stopped his insane action; he listened to his friends, Patterson and Backlund. During the early stages of this battle, Andre removed Khan's boot, to use as a weapon on Khan. Khan finally got his boot back, and used it on Andre. All and all, both of these gladiators, gave it their all, in this very violent struggle.)

Bob Backlund W. George Steele (Backlund pinned Steele, after a sensational Drop Kick, that sent George bouncing off the ropes, to the mat-back first. Steele did use his his foreign object on Bob, as well as two Flying Hammer Lock Holds; but was unsuccessful, with what he tried. Backlund showed Steele, that he, is the better man.)

Curt Hennig W. Strong Kobayashi (By pin, with a full Jack-Knife Cradle/Sunset Flip.)

Tony Garea & Rick Martel W. Rex & Spot - The Moondogs -DQ.
(1ST FALL- Martel pinned Spot, after a high Vertical Suplex.)

(2ND FALL- The Moondogs were disqualified, for double teaming Martel. Garea and Martel were then declared the victors, in this tough match.)

UPCOMING TO M.S.G.: 8/24/81

King Kong Mosca VS. Pedro Morales

TRIP TO THE 14TH ANNUAL WRESTLING FANS INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION CONVENTION

JULY 22, 23, 24, AND 25, 1981 ---- HOLIDAY INN-DOWNTOWN, HOUSTON, TEXAS

By
PAUL ABBINANTE

7/23/81 THE PORT ARTHUR CIVIC CENTER, PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS

Nick Kozak DREW Kelly Kiniski (This bout went to the full time limit. Both men fought a very hard battle, and countered every move, with great determination.)

Lou Thesz W. Larry Lane -DQ. (Lane was disqualified, for tossing Thesz over the top ring rope, to the ringside floor. Thesz looked Great, in this Outstanding Encounter.)

Lou Thesz & Nick Kozak W. Larry Lane & Kelly Kiniski (Kozak pinned Kiniski, with a Full Jack-Knife Cradle/Sunset Flip. Thesz looked once again, in Great Shape, and worked well with partner, Kozak. Lane & Kiniski were a very rough combo, also.)

Manny Fernandez W. Col. Buck Robley (Fernandez pinned Robley, with a quick Backslide/ Shoulder Stand Combination, after reversing Robley's attempt at the same pinning combination. Robley wore his usual padded-lower arm brace. Both men wrestled quite well, in this rough struggle.)

Tony Atlas & Tiger Conway, Jr. W. Gorgeous Gino Hernandez & Tully Blanchard - DQ. (Special Guest Referee Lou Thesz: Hernandez and Blanchard were disqualified, when Blanchard tossed Atlas over the top ring rope, to the ringside floor. At one point during this wild match, Tiger leaped off the corner turnbuckle to land on his opposition, and landed on referee Thesz, by error, knocking him down to the mat. Both teams tore each other apart, in this torrid affair. Because of Tully's infraction, Tony & Tiger became the proud victors, in this terrific battle.)

UPCOMING TO PORT ARTHUR: 8/8/81

Tony Atlas & Tiger Conway, Jr. VS. Gorgeous Gino Hernandez & Tully Blanchard (Texas Death Match)

PLUS OTHER BOUTS

7/24/81 THE SAM HOUSTON COLISEUM, HOUSTON, TEXAS

Larry Lane DREW Kelly Kiniski (This bout went to the full time limit. Both men tried to pin each other a number of times, during this tough bout.)

Don Diamond W. Tom Prichard (By pin, with a Vertical Body Scissors Takedown Combination.)

Tully Blanchard DREW-D.DQ. Mike Graham (Graham's forehead became bloody, after being rammed into the steel ring post by Tully. Graham followed that up by doing the same thing to Blanchard. Both Tully and Mike were very bloody, on their foreheads. Graham became very obsessed in hurting Tully, and when the referee tried to intervene, to stop Mike. Graham then struck the referee, a number of times, even knocking him down, to the mat. Graham went wild, and put Tully into his figure four leglock, to try and make Tully submit. Then to make mattersworse, Gino Hernandez caused some outside interference, by leaping off the top rope-corner turnbuckle on to Graham, while Mike had his hold on Tully. The referee called this decision, because of the roughness between both parties. At one point, it seemed that Graham was the only one to be disqualified, but since Gino Hernandez interfered, in behalf of Tully Blanchard, the referee then disqualified both grapplers.)

Tiger Conway, Jr. & Manny Fernandez W. Col. Buck Robley & Tank Patton (Conway, Jr. pinned Patton, with a sensational Inside Cradle Both teams fought like wildcats, in this melee. Buck wore his lower arm-p ided brace, and Tank wore his own cast on his lower arm.)

Cowboy Scott Casey W. Eddy (The Continental Lover) Mansfield (Texas Bull Rope Match-No Time Limit: Casey became very bloody on his forehead, by being hit with the cowbell by Mansfield. Mansfield's forehead became bloody, because Casey did the same thing to him. Casey scored a win, by pinning Mansfield; after hitting him in the stomach, with the cowbell. This bout was very exciting, through and through.)

Chavo Guerrero W. Gorgeous Gino Hernandez -K.O. (Mexican Death Match- Falls Do Not Count/No Disqualifications/No Time Limit/Tully Blanchard-Locked In A Steel Cage, Suspended In The Air, Above The Ring: First Match:
(1ST FALL- Gino by pin, after a great suplex. Chavo's forehead was cut bloody.)
(2ND FALL- Gino by pin, after an Elbow Smash.)
(3RD FALL- Gino by pin, after a Flying Elbow Drop, off the top rope-corner-turnbuckle.)
(4TH FALL- Chavo by pin, after a somersault on Gino's stomach. Gino's forehead became bloody.)
(5TH FALL- Chavo by pin, after a Flying Kneedrop.)
(6TH FALL- A bleeding Chavo pinned a bloody Gino.)
(7TH FALL- Chavo beat Gino, with a one Leg Wrap Up/Leglock Submission Hold. Gino did not want to continue, after the submission hold. Before Gino was hooked up in The Leglock, he hurt his own knee, by ramming it, into the corner turnbuckle, after missing a charge at Chavo. The referee saw that Gino appeared to be hurt, at this particular moment, and could not continue. Gino's knee was in bad shape, so the referee counted Gino out; inside the ring (Knock Out), making Chavo the victor.)

(Second Match-Two Minutes Without A Referee: Gino regained his composure, and then got even with Chavo. Gino Choked Chavo with the ring ropes. Chavo's head was caught between the two top ropes. The referee tried to break this up, and was struck by Gino, a number of times. Gino was getting even with Chavo. During this time, Tully Blanchard, who was in the steel cage, was being lowered down. Just as Tully got out of the steel cage, Chavo got out of the ropes, and fell to the mat. Tully then joined Gino, and they ganged up on a helpless Chavo, hurting him. Manny Fernandez then came to Chavo's rescue, by waving a stick, as he entered the ring. Gino and Tully did not want any part of this scene, so they made a hasty retreat to their dressing rooms. Chavo was still declared the winner of this match, even though at the finish of the event, Gino got even with Chavo. Despite the outside interference towards the end of this two-match encounter, by Tully Blanchard and Manny Fernandez; this battle between Chavo and Gino, was great.)

Tony Atlas DREW Nick Bockwinkel (Special Guest Referee Lou Thesz:
(2ND FALL- Atlas pinned Bockwinkel, after a devastating Giant Bodyslam.)
(3RD FALL- This bout went to the full time limit. The final bell sounded as Atlas went for the pin, after a sensational Suplex. Both men gave it their all, in the final moments of this titanic struggle. Many holds were traded during this great three fall event. During this battle, Atlas weakened Bockwinkel, with a couple of devastating giant Full Bodyslams. Both gladiators tried their best, to win this last fall, and the match, but they could not defeat one another. Referee Thesz did a Tremendous Job officiating this stupendous bout.)

NOTES ON THE PORT ARTHUR AND HOUSTON CARDS:

The highlights of the card held at Port Arthur, was the appearances of six-times former N.W.A. World H.C., Lou Thesz. Seeing this sensational mat star on three different occasions in one night, was too good, to be true. Mr. Thesz was asked to wrestle twice, as well as referee a match. He replaced Relampago Leon on these two occasions. Leon was sidelined by a recent injury. Veteran Thesz wrestled brilliantly against Larry Lane, who is a cousin of Dory Funk, Jr. and Terry Funk. Thesz gave Lane a run for his money, in their match. Thesz in tag competition, with veteran partner, Nick Kozak, against Larry Lane and young rookie sensation, Kelly Kiniski; who is the son of one-time former N.W.A. World H.C., Gene Kiniski. Both teams looked terrific, in action; with Mr. Thesz looking the best of the four wrestlers, in this tag event. As a referee, Lou Thesz did a great job handling the action, between the sensational team of Tony "Mr. U.S.A." Atlas and Tiger Conway, Jr., and the rough team of "Gorgeous" Gino Hernandez and "Tough" Tully Blanchard. Hernandez and Blanchard are a tough team to contend with, as are Atlas and Conway, Jr.

Mat action highlights of the Houston card was top-notch, with Lou Thesz refereeing an important title match between A.W.A. World H.C., Nick Bockwinkel and top contender, Tony Atlas. Both of these wrestlers looked great in battle against one another. The feud between Chavo Guerrero and "Gorgeous" Gino Hernandez, wrestling in a "Mexican Death Match", was great to witness. An exciting "Texas Bull Rope Match", between "Cowboy" Scott Casey and Eddy "The Continental Lover" Mansfield, was some sight to see, also. Col. Buck Robley and Tank Patton gave the tough, but successful team of Tiger Conway, Jr. and Manny Fernandez, a rough battle. Tully Blanchard, battling against Mike Graham, was a great bout between the sons of former wrestling greats, Promoters Joe Blanchard and Eddie Graham. All of the bouts on both of these cards were of the highest quality possible. The fans and conventioneers, enjoyed themselves, to the fullest.

EXTRA SPECIAL NOTE:

These two cards, seen live by this writer, (Paul Abbinante), were presented by Promoters Paul Boesch and Peter Birkholtz of The Gulf Athletic Club/Houston Wrestling Independent Promotion Group; in affiliation with The Southwest Championship Wrestling Independent Promotion Group of San Antonio, Texas; with limited association with The American Wrestling Association (A.W.A.), of Minneapolis/ ST. Paul, Minnesota.

SOME CONVENTION HAPPENINGS:

During the days of the convention, a few wrestling personalities showed up, at the festivities, and spoke to the fans; Houston Wrestling Promoters, Paul Boesch and Peter Birkholtz. These two giants in the field of wrestling promotion,spoke at different intervals, to a group of avid listeners. Former Wrestler/Referee "Irish" Danny McShain, along with Mr. Boesch, gave some excellent commentary on the sport of Pro Wrestling throughout the years. Rookie sensation, Tom Prichard and Tony "Mr. U.S.A." Atlas, both appeared at different times, and spoke to the conventioneers. Both Prichard and Atlas' appearances made the folks who attended the convention, very happy and pleased.

The banquet awards luncheon was excellent. Promoter/TV Commentator, Paul Boesch and Associate, Peter Birkholtz, attended this affair, with a host of wrestling personalities such as Lou Thesz, "Irish" Danny McShain, Joe Blanchard Nick Bockwinkel, Larry Lane, Buck Robley, Tank Patton, Eddy Mansfield,"Gorgeous" Gino Hernandez, Tully Blanchard, Scott Casey, Tiger Conway, Jr, Manny Fernandez, Tom Prichard, and Fabulous Girl Wrestler, Karen Merritt. Everyone had a great time, conventioneers and wrestling personalities, alike. All and all, this was a memorable event; long to be remembered by everyone who attended.

EXTRA SPECIAL CLOSING NOTES:

At this point, we The Editors, of S.T.H. (Paul Abbinante and Kenneth Levitt), who attended the 1981 W.F.I.A. Convention, would like to thank our Houston Wrestling Hosts, Promoters Paul Boesch and Peter Birkholtz, and their outstanding staff; for making our stay, and every conventioneer's stay, in Houston, Texas, a great one. Mr. Boesch and Mr. Birkholtz are highly comended by The Editors of S.T.H., and the rest of The W.F.I.A. Mary Pierce and Jo Russell of Houston, Texas, Co-Presidents of The Tom Prichard-"Rocket To The Top" Fan Club; and Eloise Mascorro and Margaret Grimsley, both of Dallas, Texas, these four lovely ladies made this occasion; special for all who met them. Also, a great deal of thanks go to W.F.I.A. Executive Director, Don Wilson, and his wife, Judy Wilson, for making this a sensational convention. A special thanks also to W.F.I.A. Assistant Executive Director/Top Correspondent, Jim Ross (who replaced Former Assistant Executive Director, Eric Goldenberg), and his friend, Trudy Trafoier. These two special people, along with top correspondent, Paul Frank; and a host of others, made this trip a memorable one.

At the present time, next year's convention site and dates, are uncertain. Support The W.F.I.A., and be sure to be there, in 1982, wherever it may be held!!

SPECIAL TRIP TO DALLAS/FORT WORTH, TEXAS --- JULY 26 AND 27,1981

By

PAUL ABBINANTE

7/26/81 THE SPORTATORIUM, DALLAS, TEXAS

Walter Johnson W. Jesse Barr (By pin, after a Back-Body Drop.)
Arman Hussian W. Mike Bond (By pin, after a Clothesline Drop, followed then by a knee Drop across the throat.)
Brian Blair W. Carlos Zapata (By pin, with a One Leg/One Half Jack-Knife, after a Suplex.)
Bruiser Brody (With Second, David Von Erich) D.DQ. The Great Kabuki (With Second, MGR. Gary Hart) (Falls can count on the floor match: Brody bloodied MGR. Hart's face, by ramming him into the steel ring post. All four men went crazy in the ring, and out of the ring, fighting like maniacal wildcats. Brody used a fantastic giant Drop Kick on Kabuki. Kabuki is great, with his use of karate type moves, as he used some on Brody. Brody loves to use chairs, especially on Kabuki and his MGR. Hart. David Von Erich also entered most of this action, and beat up on Kabuki and Hart. Between Brody's use of chairs and Kabuki's wild use of karate type moves; plus seconds, Von Erich and Hart, going wild, in this free-for-all. The referee could not handle all of this insane action, and disqualified both Brody and Kabuki. All four men caused much havoc and chaos; plus too much roughness on the part of Brody and Kabuki, who were the legal participants in this titanic battle.)
Al Madril W. Chan Chung (By pin, with a full Jack-Knife Cradle/Sunset Flip, off the corner turnbuckles.)
The Spoiler W. Ten Gu (By pin, with a One Leg/One Half Jack-Knife, after a Flying Elbow Drop, off the top rope; sending Ten Gu to the mat, followed then by another sensational Flying Elbow Drop.)
David Von Erich W. Killer Tim Brooks (By pin, with a quick cradle.)

UPCOMING TO DALLAS: 8/2/81

The Spoiler & Kerry Von Erich VS. Ten Gu & The Great Kabuki (Dragonsha & Texas Tornado Match)

PLUS OTHER BOUTS

7/27/81 THE WILL ROGERS COLISEUM, FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Brian Addias DREW Mike Bond (Both men battled non-stop, to the full time limit.)

Brian Blair W. Jesse Barr (By pin, with an inside cradle.)

Al Madril W. Carlos Zapata (By pin, with a One Leg/One Half Jack-Knife, after a Flying Cross Body Press, off the corner turnbuckles.)

The Spoiler & Bruiser Brody W. Ten Gu & Chan Chung

(1ST FALL- Chung pinned the Spoiler, after an over The Knee Back-Breaker. Ten Gu tripped up The Spoiler, to set up the win.)

(2ND FALL- The Spoiler pinned Ten Gu, with a Knee Drop, off the top rope.)

(3RD FALL- Brody pinned Chung, after a one arm Bodyslam, followed then by a Flying Knee Drop.)

Referee David Manning (With Second, David Von Erich) W. Killer Tim Brooks (With Second, Arman Hussian -K.O. (Lights Out-Karate Gloves Match-Manning's Hair At Stake: In the fifth round, while the referee's back was turned, some outside interference occurred; caused by second, David Von Erich, who punched Brooks. Manning then Floored Brooks, with a terrific punch, and scored a Knock Out Win. This was a very wild Match.)

David Von Erich DREW Arman Hussian (In the final moments of this match, Von Erich tried to beat Hussian, with The Iron Claw, to the head. Hussian then escaped the hold, by using a foreign object, to strike David. This bout was wild, with both grapplers trying to do each other in. David even tried his Sleeper Hold, earlier in this bout. In the end, Von Erich and Hussian battled to the full time limit.)

Kevin Von Erich W. Killer Tim Brooks -DQ. (Brooks was disqualified, for flooring the referee, with a punch. Kevin tried to use The Iron Claw, on Brooks' head, but was unsuccessful. Brooks was very wild in this encounter. Kevin hit Brooks, with a couple of great Standing Drop Kicks, during the course of this rough Battle.)

UPCOMING TO FORT WORTH: 8/3/81

Bruiser Brody & Kevin & David Von Erich (With Fritz Von Erich)

VS.

Ten Gu & The Great Kabuki & Chan Chung (With MGR., Gary Hart) (Cage Match)

Kerry Von Erich VS. Arman Hussian

The Spoiler VS. Ernie Ladd (Brass Knucks Match)

PLUS OTHER BOUTS.

NOTES ON THE DALLAS AND FORT WORTH CARDS:

These two cards had a lot of great action. First off, the main man, Bruiser Brody, caused a great deal of excitement in the bouts he participated in. The over three hundred pound, Brody, gave MGR.,Gary Hart and his Japanese army of Ten Gu, The Great Kabuki, and Chan Chung, what for. Brody, along with The Spoiler as a tag partner, gave Hart and Crew, a real pounding. David Von Erich looked great in action, and has come a long way in his mat career. Kevin Von Erich also looked good, in mat combat. Kevin has one of the best Standing Drop Kicks in the sport. Both Kevin & David Von Erich have a deep-rooted hatred for MGR., Gary Hart and his army, the same holds true for The Spoiler and Bruiser Brody. The Spoiler and Bruiser Brody love to beat up on Hart and his Japanese Crew. The Great Kabuki is one rough grappler, and could mix it up, with the best of them. Kabuki is a master of Karate, and uses it on his enemies. It was great to see Killer Tim Brooks in action; he is a great competitor, and is as wild as ever, in the ring. The fans always get a great deal of enjoyment, watching the matches in Dallas and Fort Worth.

EXTRA SPECIAL NOTE:

Once again, special thanks go to Eloise Mascorro and Margaret Grimsley of Dallas, for being so kind and Helpful. Also a special note of appreciation and graditude to W.F.I.A. Assistant Executive Director/Top Correspondent, Jim Ross, and his friend Trudy Trafoier, as well as Top Correspondent, Paul Frank. These people have made this whole trip worthwhile and memorable, in more ways than one.

S.T.H. WORLD MAT NEWS
BY
PAUL ABBINANTE

N.W.A. Mat action in The Georgia circuit, has been fast and furious. N.W.A. World H.C., Dusty Rhodes, has defended his belt in this area, and has been quite successful. Rhodes has turned back such contenders as Ken Patera, Bruiser Brody, Jimmy Snuka, and Terry Gordy. It looks like Rhodes will hold on to his prestigious title for a long, long time. "Fabulous Freebird" Michael Hayes, has come back to this circuit, and is after his former partner, "The Ex-Fabulous Freebird" Terry Gordy. Michael Hayes is now a fan favorite, and wants a showdown with Terry Gordy. Terry Gordy, along with partner, Jimmy "Superfly" Snuka, are the current Georgia T.T.C. Snuka and Gordy are a tough pair, and have been turning back, some tough teams. Michael Hayes has teamed with Tommy "Wildfire" Rich, and Ted DiBiase, in an attempt to get even with Terry Gordy; to capture The Georgia T.T.C. It looks like the feud between Hayes and Gordy, will last for quite some time. Both of these men dislike each other, and want to do each other in. "Wildfire" Tommy Rich is once again, The Georgia H.C. Rich succeded Ken Patera, who forfeited the title. Patera did not want to face "Wildfire", in mat combat. Rich will be a very good titleholder, and bring dignity and respect to The Georgia H.C. Blackjack Mulligan still has a violent feud going on with Bruiser Brody. Brody and Mulligan have a deep-rooted hatred for one another. Newcomer to this area, "Big" John Studd, a pal of Bruiser Brody, started a feud with Blackjack Mulligan; and Blackjack's son, the sensational Blackjack Mulligan, Jr. (Barry Mulligan). It looks like The Blackjacks will feud with the rough pair of Bruiser Brody and John Studd, in tag competition, and in individual Matches. The Superstar has once again entered the scene in this circuit, and is tearing up the opposition. The Superstar is one rough masked rulebreaker. Ric Flair has come back to this area, and is looking for top competition, which includes a title shot at N.W.A. World H.C., Dusty Rhodes. Flair would also like a shot at The Georgia H.C., which is currently held by Tommy Rich. Look for Flair to go all the way. Mike Sharpe has recently become a rulebreaker, and is making his presence known, by roughing up his opponents. Newcomer, Texas Great, Kevin Von Erich, The son of Fritz Von Erich, has come on The Georgia scene. He has been astonding fans, with his terrific mat style. Kevin Von Erich is a very good grappler, and has many great wrestling holds, that he displays in mat combat. Kevin Von Erich and Blackjack Mulligan, Jr. would be a very exciting team in action, if they ever pair up together, in tag competition. Both of these young mat stars, just like their fathers, will bring great mat excitement, wherever they wrestle. The Peach State circuit, always has the finast wrestling available, in mat competition.

Mat action in The N.W.A.-Southern Championship Wrestling,(With Limited Association with The N.W.A.-Mid-Atlantic Wrestling Circuit)-Knoxville,Tennessee circuit, has been booming. Blackjack Mulligan, Sr. has a great big violent feud going on with Bruiser Brody. This feud between these two giants, has the fans in awe, as they witness the fierce struggle, for the survival of the fittest, among these two gladiators. Blackjack's son Blackjack Mulligan, Jr., has a wild feud going on with Brody's good pal-"Big" John Studd. Both men are fighting over The N.W.A. Southern H.C. Studd, to current info, has captured The Southern H.C., from Blackjack Mulligan, Jr., in a real torrid battle. Blackjack Mulligan, Jr. is determined to get his title back, from vicious rulebreaker, "Big" John Studd. Both men have won battles against one another, with the title going back and forth, in recent weeks. Another intense feud brewing, is between fan favorite, Terry Taylor and rulebreaker, Kevin Sullivan. Recent Mat stars appearing from time to time, in this circuit are Tony Atlas, Ric Flair, Wayne Farris, "Crippler" Chris Canyon, and expected in soon is Dick The Bruiser, who is after Bruiser Brody and "Big" John Studd. Look for Dick The Bruiser to have a vicious feud, with Brody and Studd. This area is always on top, with great mat happenings.

Mat action in The N.W.A./A.W.A./C.W.A.-Memphis,Tennessee circuit, has been fast moving. Billy Robinson is still reconized as The C.W.A. World H.C. Robinson will soon be working in this region, full time. Bill Dundee and Tommy Rich are still The C.W.A. World T.T.C. Dundee and Rich are a very fine team, who work well together. Mr. Onita and Masa Fuchi are the proud holders of the A.W.A Southern T.T.C. Onita and Fuchi are managed by Tojo Yamamoto. Yamamoto is feuding with Dutch Mantell, in a series of tough encounters. At the present time, Chick Donovan is still in this area, but has been sidelined, due to an injury. Both Donovan and his manager, Jimmy Hart, who is still on the injured list, come to ringside at the arenas, to help their rulebreaking buddies. Hart is a thorn in the side of many fan favorite grapplers. Hart is also managing, The Heartbreakers (Sir Joseph Cagle and Rocky Sortor), as well as The Nightmares #1 & #2. The Dream Machine is once again, a rulebreaker, and is feuding with Jerry Lawler, and other fan favorites. Bugsy McGraw has recently entered the action in this circuit, and looks terrific. Bugsy is guided by MGR., Jimmy Hart. Steve Keirn has recently beat "Outlaw" Ron Bass, for The N.W.A.-Mid-America H.C. Keirn is a great wrestler, and could mix it up with the best of them. Jerry Lawler is still the top grappler in this circuit, and continues to attract record crowds, at the arenas. Jimmy Valiant and Tommy Rich have recently made some rare appearances in this region, and are both tremendous favorites of their throngs of loyal fans. This area is always on tap, with great wrestling.

The A.W.A. mat circuit, is on the rise. Nick Bockwinkel is still holding tight to his A.W.A. World H.C. Bockwinkel is one tough champ, and is taking on all comers, for his coveted crown. Bockwinkel and MGR., Bobby Heenan, continue to "Rule The Roost" in The A.W.A. Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell, since winning The A.W.A. World T.T.C., from Jesse Ventura and Adrian Adonis, are still on top of the tag team scene. Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell are still feuding with former tag kings, Jesse Ventura and Adrian Adonis. Both teams are waging a war with each other. Mike Graham is still The A.W.A. World Jr. H.C., and is turning back some top opposition. Baron Von Raschke is still feuding with Jerry Blackwell. The Incrededible Hulk Hogan has entered the competition in this circuit. Hogan is a very huge man, and demands respect for his size and ability. Look for Hogan to go straight to the top, in this circuit. This Circuit is always hopping, with wild mat happenings.

Mat action in Houston-San Antonio, Texas area, has been riding high. This circuit is under the banner of Southwest Championship Wrestling, which is an Independent Promotional Group, working out of San Antonio, Texas; and has an alliance with Houston Wrestling Promotional Group, out of Houston, Texas. This circuit has limited association, with The A.W.A., because A.W.A. World H.C., Nick Bockwinkel, has made some recent title defences, in this area. This circuit has The Southwest World T.T.C., "Gorgeous" Gino Hernandez and "Tough" Tully Blanchard, who are a very tough combo, defending their laurels against some great combos. Gino and Tully have gone up against such teams as Tony Atlas and Tiger Conway, Jr. and Chavo Guerrero and Manny Fernandez; and have come out of these battles, with their belts intact. Southwest World/International Jr. H.C., Chavo Guerrero, has been feuding, with "Gorgeous" Gino Hernandez; both men are bent on destroying one another. Manny Fernandez is still holding tight, to The Southwest H.C. Fernandez is an active champ, and defends his belt against top contenders. Col. Buck Robley and American Brass Knucks Champ, Tank Patton, are a tough pair to overcome. Robley is a very rough grappler, in individual bouts, and in tag encounters. Rookie sensations, Tom Prichard and Kelly Kiniski, the son of former N.W.A. World H.C., Gene Kiniski, are doing great in recent matches. Mil Mascaras has recently made some rare appearances, in this area. "Cowboy" Scott Casey and " The Continental Lover" Eddy Mansfield, have been feuding, in a violent series of brutal bouts, all over this circuit. This region is top-notch, in mat action.

Mat action in The W.W.F.-Northeast area, has been fast paced. Tony Garea and Rick Martel have recently defeated The Moondogs (Rex and Spot), for The W.W.F. T.T.C. Garea and Martel now have another threat - The Japanese Duo of Mr. Fuji and Mr. Saito, managed by Captain Lou Albano. Fuji and Saito are a very dangerous team, and they work well together. Albano is very proud of his new Japanese Combo, and he claims they will eventually defeat Garea and Martel, for The W.W.F. T.T.C. W.W.F. H.C., Bob Backlund, and former W.W.F. Intercontinental H.C., Pedro Morales, are both having a rough time, with W.W.F. Intercontinental H.C., The Magnificent Muraco. Muraco also want's Backlund's title. Muraco is a very rough grappler, and puts his all into every match he wrestles in. King Kong Mosca is still in this circuit, and he is still giving the fan favorites a hard time, with his brutal ring tactics. Greg Valentine is still a force to be recokned with, when he appears from time to time, in this region. Valentine is under the strict management of The Grand Wizard of Wrestling, who is managing W.W.F. Intercontinental H.C., The Magnificent Muraco. If Muraco and Valentine join forces and team together, they will be a devastating pair in ring combat. This circuit is always on tap, with great mat excitement.

ANOTHER CORRECTION

In this issue (#41), due to an oversight, we failed to mention in our special trip to Dallas/Fort Worth, Texas that the two cards we witnessed, were under the sanction and guidance of The National Wrestling Alliance (N.W.A.)

---

SPECIAL S.T.H. WORLD MAT NEWS FLASH:

In The Southwest Championship Wrestling Independent Promotion Group, A.W.A. Limited Affiliate, recent title changes have occurred. In San Antonio, Texas, the unusual duo of Wahoo McDaniel and Terry Funk defeated Gino Hernandez and Tully Blanchard, to capture The Southwest World T.T.C. Also, Dick Slater beat Manny Fernandez, to become The New Southwest H.C., on that very same card. This Circuit is always fast moving.
